St. Vincent de Paul Summer Drive

What We Believe

Summer Drive for St Vincent de Paul RWC Homeless Help Center

During the month of August, St Denis will be collecting summer items for the people served by SVdP's Redwood City Homeless Help Center. Items of greatest need include:

- Sunscreen (at least SPF 30)
- Chapstick
- Sun hats
- Baseball caps
- Sun visors

Starting next week, bins will be available at the back of the church. Your donations will enable guests of the centers to receive these essential summer items that are not usually supplied. Thanks in advance for your generosity.

MORE PARABLES, MORE SURPRISES

Sell everything you own and buy the field or the pearl....
Would you do that?
Is anything worth that much?

Practically speaking, it doesn't make sense to sell everything you have for a pearl.
Even if the pearl is a great investment, how could it be worth everything?

And yet Jesus is telling us that the Kingdom of God is worth everything.
Nothing is more valuable or worth having.
We should be willing to give it all up for God's kingdom.
But we don't even know what God's kingdom is!

God's kingdom is not a place but an experience.
God's kingdom happens when we are doing what God wants us to do.

When we love and care for each other, God's kingdom happens.
When we forgive, God's kingdom happens.
When we share what we have with those who need it, God's kingdom happens.
When we live in peace with our enemies, God's kingdom happens.

Isn't that all worth more than everything?

Yours in the Lord, Lucy

Spiritual Book Group

The Faith Club: A Muslim, a Christian, a Jew –Three Women Search for Understanding by Ranya Idliby, Suzanne Oliver, and Priscilla Warner. Written as a response to the September 11th attacks, this book continues to show the way to greater appreciation of the three Abrahamic faiths. These three women discover shared beliefs and differences. They confront biases they didn't realize they'd had. They develop a strong friendship and support each other in each other's spiritual growth. Join us as we explore the three faith perspectives and get to know these lovely women. Everyone is welcome. Our group meets on Tuesday mornings at 10:00 am in a private home. Please contact Tereza McNamee, 323-6859 for further information.
